

Although I am an absolutist concerning the first amendment, I find that a corporate broadcast company should be required to air equal educational content. The airwaves are owned by the public and should be educated in a nonpartisan manner or such broadcast licenses should be revoked.